Synaptics TDDI Solution Wins Two Mobile Excellence Awards for Best Mobile Innovator and Best Technology Breakthrough

SAN JOSE, Calif., Jan. 11, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- Synaptics Incorporated (NASDAQ: SYNA), the leading developer of human interface solutions, today announced that its ClearPad® TouchView™ 4300 touch and display driver integration (TDDI) products won two separate categories in the 8th Annual Mobile Excellence Awards including Best Mobile Innovator and Best Technology Breakthrough. The Synaptics® TDDI solution enables faster time-to-market, lower overall system cost, a simplified supply chain, thinner devices, brighter displays and borderless designs.

The Mobile Excellence Awards recognize innovators, leaders, change agents and trend-setters spanning the global mobile ecosystem from lifestyle to technology and entertainment. The 8th Annual winners can be found at <http://mobileXawards.com/>.

Synaptics' ClearPad 4300 TDDI -- targeting markets including smartphones, tablets and automotive -- combine the company's touch controller IP and systems level expertise with its proven display driver technology into a single device. Synaptics partnered with industry leading global OEMs and LCMs who require superlative quality, product differentiation and feature-rich solutions.

"We're honored that the ClearPad 4300 is being recognized by the Mobile Excellence Awards as a breakthrough in mobile technology in an unprecedented two categories for the level of innovation it brings to the mobile environment," said Tim Vehling, vice president of marketing, Smart Displays Division, Synaptics. "It's a huge testament to the excellent work being done by our team and the laser focus we place on revolutionizing human interface solutions."
